

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Disabling conditions, both physical and mental, directly affect 35 million citizens of our nation and have serious and costly implications for all who live in the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Each of us can play a role in reducing the impact of disability by focusing attention on this vital area of human concern; and,

WHEREAS, Beginning now, and throughout 1981, the International Year of Disabled Persons will provide us an opportunity to take part in an ongoing, nationwide campaign to help the American public understand disability and to assist in ensuring full participation in the life of our society for all of our citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, in support of the United Nations General Assembly Resolution proclaiming 1981 as the International Year of Disabled Persons, and on behalf of their nationwide efforts, do hereby proclaim October 24, 1980, as

UNITED NATIONS DAY

In South Dakota, and during 1981, the International Year of Disabled Persons, I urge each citizen of the State to become involved with activities which are directed at bringing about the full participation we all seek.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
